BIO

Driven by infectious energy, Adriana and Frank deliver a fun and delightful fusion of "happy-sexy-dirty" electronic music. Their sound is a global cocktail: the driving pulse of Amsterdam's nightlife, the vibrant heat of Colombian rhythms, and the deep, mountain-echoing basslines of Canada. VamoVamo is a relentless call to the dancefloor where soulful grooves mix with peak-time intensity. It's a rhythmic movement fueled by a "let's go" spirit, blending curated house, latin heat, and raw techno pulses into an experience built for pure joy, booty-shaking energy, and unforgettable sessions.

Formerly MonkeyTwerk, VamoVamo is the refined evolution of Adriana and Frank's global sound. Blending a mature identity with their signature wild energy, and lighting up high-energy day parties and immersive late-night festivals on both sides of the Atlantic.

SHOWS

From headlining their own festival to rocking music festival stages across Canada, the UK, Netherlands, and Costa Rica, their global footprint is unmistakable.
